Civil Weddings in special venues

Civil wedding ceremonies in Italy are unique and truly charming. In our country there are spectacular venues such as historical buildings, rich in art and history, or villas and castles in the countryside.

In Castelfiorentino there are three different venues where to have a civil wedding:

The Red Hall at the Town Hall, located in the very heart of Castelfiorentino
The Oliveto Castle (www.castellooliveto.it)
The Coiano Castle (www.castellodicoiano.it)

Both castles are at only a few minutes driving distance from Castelfiorentino.

Wedding ceremonies performed in the Red Hall of the Town Hall are free. If you instead prefer the spectacular setting offered by the wonderful castles, it is required to pay a fee – established each year by the City Council.

In both historical venues you may also organize an outdoor wedding ceremony.

Italian wedding ceremonies can be personalized with personal reading and vows. The Italian civil wedding rite is intimate and beautiful.

Anyway specific marriage requirements are necessary when planning a civil wedding ceremony in Italy:

- Civil ceremonies are officiated by an Italian authority and are legally recognized in your country
- Ceremony is performed in Italian by Mayor or civil registrar
- An interpreter is necessary
- Ceremony consists in a mix between the articles of the Italian civil code and traditional marriage vows and lasts 20 minutes approximately

- Two witnesses over 18 years are necessary
- By law civil ceremony must take place in buildings approved by the Italian government (castles, villas, palaces, etc.). In Castelfiorentino, there are only the three venues above mentioned.
- Civil ceremonies in Italy can be customized with elements that express your personality and values: music, readings, poetry and personal vows.
- No residency requirements: the couple can arrive in Italy 4/5 business days before the wedding date, in order to complete the necessary paperwork.

Civil weddings in Italy are legally recognized in Italy and abroad.
